GRAMMY NOMINATED AND AWARD WINNING PRODUCER

Mark Carman

Mark Carman is a veteran music producer with more than 3,000 production credits. He has worked with some of the biggest names in the recording and entertainment industry including; Alabama, Vince Gill, Leon Russell, Trace Adkins, The Oak Ridge Boys, T. Graham Brown, Shenandoah, and others. As a political activist, Mark Carman is dedicated to the cause of changing the laws in the United States, making firearms owners, sellers, and buyers, more accountable and responsible through legislation and implementation of best practices.

Mark's efforts have garnered more than a million signatures on a petition to encourage the President to take the Executive Action on Responsible Firearms Legislation and have carried him all the way to the White House. He is also dedicated to matters dealing with racial inequality and has begun a campaign addressing policing in America.

Mark is a former police officer, an under cover operative, a Naval Intelligence operative, a recipient of the President's Volunteers in Service to America Lifetime Achievement Award, Ambassador of Good Will (State of Tennessee), Grammy Nominations, Song-writing Awards, Number One Recordings, etc.
